Employee Identification

All Water Authority personnel carry photo identification badges which you should ask to see prior to allowing them access to your residence.

The Water Authority participates in the Nassau County Police Department's "Crimes Against the Elderly" project. If you suspect that an individual is an impostor utility worker, you should immediately contact our customer service department in order to verify the individual's identity.

Our customer service representatives are trained to recognize the identities of our employees and can confirm their assigned work locations.

If you notice suspicious activity on Water Authority property, please call Customer Service 24-hours a day at (516) 327-4100
